

DCCI wins the “MLS-SCM^(P) Best Network Partner Institution Award 2010” of International Trade Centre (ITC) - UNCTAD/WTO, Geneva among 120 Partner Institutions in 69 countries.

DCCI was awarded with the “MLS-SCM^(P) Best Network Partner Institution Award 2010” of International Trade Centre (ITC) - UNCTAD/WTO, Geneva, among 120 partner Institutions in 69 countries, at the “MLS-SCM^(P) Global Network Roundtable, Malaysia, 2011”, held at Kuala Lumpur during 06-08 April, 2011.

The Roundtable was organized by ITC jointly with MAPICS, Malaysia with the support of the Govt. of Switzerland. Sixty Nine (69) participants from different countries, participated in the Roundtable. A five-member delegation, headed by Asif Ibrahim, President, Dhaka Chamber of Commerce & Industry (DCCI) participated in the Roundtable. The other members of the delegation were the lead trainers of DCCI Business Institute (DBI), namely, Syed Asgar Ali, Enayet Hossain, Kamruzzaman and Md. Rashid Ali.

During the Roundtable, the President of DCCI presented a power point presentation regarding the achievement of DCCI in promoting and developing the Modular Learning System in Supply Chain Management (MLS-SCM^(P)) of ITC in Bangladesh. ITC has developed 18 modules of MLS-SCM^(P) to help companies achieve excellence in the supply chain. The symbol ^(P) signifies the power of purchasing which is the key element of the programme. Among other things, he mentioned that DCCI has developed an excellent infrastructure and a pool of experienced trainers through ToT Workshops for conducting Certificate/Diploma course in Supply Chain Management. This is a unique, proven and powerful management system to cut cost, reduce lead time and become competitive in the Global Market.

After taking necessary preparation for 3 years from 2004, DCCI Business Institute (DBI) has been offering regular courses from 2007. So far, 334 participants have been trained for Certificate Course, 146 participants for Advanced Certificate and 85 participants for Diploma. Of them 48 have received Certificate and 21 received Advanced Certificate. About 20 have been working for Diploma. In the mean time, the MLS-SCM^(P) of DBI has become popular in Bangladesh and participants from Business, Govt. and Non-Govt. organizations are coming in large numbers. In 2010, 84 participants have been admitted for the course. They are rating the course as very good and the trainers very experienced and effective. In view of the excellent performance of DBI, DCCI was awarded with the Certificate of the MLS-SCM^(P) Best Network Partner Institution Award 2010.

One Lead Trainer of DBI, Syed Asgar Ali, Import Manager, BOC Bangladesh Ltd. was awarded the Certificate of “the Best Success Story Winner 2010” during the Roundtable. He has demonstrated that he yielded an astonishing Euro 2.6 million in saving through using the tools and techniques of MLS-SCM^(P) in his organization.
